

Privacy Policy

Council for Sports Ecosystem Promotion (hereinafter referred to as the “Organization”), respects and complies with all applicable laws and regulations concerning personal information and their underlying principles, handles personal information appropriately and securely, and endeavors to protect personal information and related information.

1. Acquisition and Use of Personal Information

The Organization shall, in principle, acquire personal information by lawful and fair means based on the will of the individual concerned.

2. Purposes of Use

The Organization shall use the personal information it acquires for the following purposes:

- To provide information on, and to operate, meetings, training sessions, seminars, and other events organized, co-organized, or sponsored by the Organization
- To conduct questionnaires, surveys, and other research necessary for the Organization’s activities
- To distribute e-mail newsletters and provide information related to the Organization’s activities by other means
- To provide and send institutional journals and other related materials
- To facilitate information sharing among members
- To manage membership
- To respond to inquiries
- To conduct recruitment and hiring activities

3. Management of Personal Information

The Organization shall take necessary and appropriate measures to prevent leakage, loss, or damage of personal information and to ensure the safe management of personal information. Where the Organization entrusts all or part of the handling of personal information to a third party, it shall exercise necessary and appropriate supervision over such contractor.

4. Provision of Personal Information to Third Parties

The Organization shall not provide personal information to any third party without the prior consent of the individual concerned, except where required by laws and regulations or where disclosure is lawfully requested by a court or other competent authority.

5. Disclosure, Correction, Addition, Deletion, Suspension of Use, and Erasure of Personal Information

Where an individual requests disclosure, correction, addition, deletion, suspension of use, or erasure of their personal information, the Organization shall respond promptly after conducting necessary verification procedures, including confirmation of the individual's identity.

6. Review of this Privacy Policy

In order to ensure the protection of personal information, the Organization shall comply with relevant laws and regulations and other norms, and shall continuously review and improve this Privacy Policy.

7. Amendments

The Organization may amend all or part of this Privacy Policy. In the event of any material changes, notice shall be given on the Organization's website.
